CrI.O.P.No.4690 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.118 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant S.Krishnamoorthi is that on 18.02.2023 at about 4.00 p.m., when the de facto complainant was standing in front of his house, the petitioner/A1 and Vickey/A2 attacked the de facto complainant with deadly weapons, resulting him in sustaining injuries and abused him with filthy language with regard to some property dispute. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that with regard to property dispute, the petitioner along with other accused abused the de facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him, resulting him in sustaining grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on either sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
