Crl.O.P.No.4779 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.26 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.It is the case of the prosecution that upon secret information, the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence, where, they found that the petitioner and other accused persons have illegally transported 6 units of Karungal (Stone). Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged. However, on instructions, the learned counsel submitted that the petitioner, on their own volition, is ready and willing to contribute a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of the Registered Advocates Clerks Association, Perambalur District, that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the accused persons have illegally transported 6 units of Karungal (Stone). He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous case. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner has no previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate No-II, Perambalur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
