Crl.O.P.No.4821 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.22 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners assaulted the son of the defacto complainant, since he induced one Elavarasan and made him to quarrel with the petitioners with regard to return of his two wheeler. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and a case in counter. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that he petitioners assaulted the son of the defacto complainant, since he induced one Elavarasan and made him to quarrel with the petitioners with regard to return of his two wheeler. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and it is a case and a case in counter. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
