2. In the affidavit filed by the second applicant on his behalf and on behalf of the first applicant, in support of this application, the second applicant has stated that he was not aware that discharge petition will have to be filed immediately after adjudication as an insolvent. He would state that he was under the impression that only after completion of public examination, an application for discharge can be filed. The second applicant has also stated that due to his illness, financial crisis and family circumstances, he was unable to file the discharge petition on time by engaging a counsel.

3. The learned Official Assignee has also not raised any serious objection for allowing this application.

4. This Court is satisfied with the reasons stated in the accompanying affidavit, seeking to condone the delay of 960 days in filing the discharge petition.
