2.This Court is satisfied with the reasons contained in the respective affidavits seeking the reliefs sought for in these applications as sufficient cause has been shown by the applicant.

3.Accordingly, these applications are allowed as prayed for.

4.It is brought to the notice of this Court by the learned counsel for the plaintiffs that a reply statement has already been filed by the plaintiffs into the registry, but the same was not accepted since earlier written statement filed by the defendants was not taken on record by this Court. Since the written statement is now allowed to be taken on record by this Court by virtue of this Court's order, learned counsel for the plaintiffs seeks permission of this Court to file a reply statement to the written statement and counter claim made by the defendants.
