The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 355, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Woman Act in Crime No.48 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to pathway dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and due to pathway dispute, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there is a case in counter on the complaint given by the petitioners in Crime No.49 of 2023. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and due to pathway dispute, they have abused and assaulted each other. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in
