Crl.O.P.No.5237 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 325, 234, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.9 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused persons has abused him in filthy language and also attacked him with wooden log, thereby causing injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant is simple in nature. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused persons has abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with wooden log. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either sides and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
