4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is a habitual offender, against him, there are nine previous cases. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel on both sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner is a habitual offender, against him, there are nine previous cases, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
