Crl.O.P.No.5460 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 447, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC and also under Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.8 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant S.Kutty is that he and his brothers are the owners of the property situated at S.No.26/1, Yelagiri Hills, Athanavur Village, Tiruppattur Taluk, Vellore District, measuring about 1.35 acres. On 06.05.2022 at about 5.30 a.m., the petitioner trespassed into the said property and illegally performed pooja ceremony and she also attempted to erect fence surrounding the subject property during the pendency of a suit in O.S.33 of 2019 before the Additional District Court, Tirupattur Taluk, Vellore District. It is further alleged that the accused along with other persons verbally abused and assaulted the de facto complainant and his family members and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the subject property was purchased by M/s.Madras Madurai Properties Private Limited in the year 2001 from one K.Suresh and the same was registered as Doc.No.496 of 2007 before the SRO, Tiruppatur but, the de facto complainant Mr.Kutty, is now illegally claiming that he is rightful owner of the property stating that when he was a minor child, the subject property was alienated by his family members. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and on the complaint given by the petitioner side, a counter case in Crime No.7 of 2022 has been registered against the opposite party. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on her. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that this is the case and case in counter. On 06.05.2022, at about 5.30 a.m., the petitioner illegally trespassed into the subject property and performed pooja ceremony and she also erected fence around the subject property, on account of which, a dispute arose and thereupon the petitioner along with other accused person abused, assaulted and threatened the de facto complainant and his family members. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions that it is a case and case in counter and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain
