Crl.O.P.No.5634 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.520 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant and his brother in a filthy language and also assaulted them with stones. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant and his brother in a filthy language and also assaulted them with stones. He would further submit that there are three previous cases pending against the petitioner and the injured have been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
