4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner, who is the police constable had colluded with another accused had involved in the transportation of 110 litres of ID arrack. Presence of the petitioner in the scene of occurrence has also confirmed by the CCTV footage and the tower location of his phone. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into account the nature of offence and the submissions of either sides, and the petitioner who is a member of the uniformed service had assisted the other accused in transportation of ID arrack, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
