For Petitioner	: Mr.Rahul Balaji
For Respondents	: Mr.R.Shanmugasundaram, Advocate General Assisted by Mr.K.M.D.Muhilan, Government Advocate.

ORDER

The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the review petitioner mainly contended that during the course of arguments in the writ petition, the learned Advocate General made a submission that the impugned demand notice in the writ petition shall be construed as show cause notice, enabling the aggrieved petitioner to submit their defence statements. However, that has not been recorded by this Court. Therefore, the petitioner is constrained to move the present Review Application.

2. Even assuming that such submissions were made by the learned Advocate General during the course of arguments, all such submissions were elaborately considered by this Court and more-so, this Court drew a distinction between the 'demand notice' and 'show cause notice' and the nature of the 'demand notice' issued to the writ petitioner by the Department for the purpose of recovering the royalty. Certain 'demand notices' cannot be construed as 'show cause notices' and this aspect has been elaborately considered by this Court and final order has been passed.

3. That being the factum, the said ground need not be considered for the purpose of entertaining the present Review Application. The scope of review cannot be expanded for the purpose of adjudicating the issues, which were already adjudicated by this Court. Thus, this Court is not inclined to entertain the present Review Application.

4. Accordingly, the present Review Application stands dismissed. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
