2.The contention of the petitioners is that the petitioners are wife and son of late C.Subramanian, who was retired from the respondent Corporation on 31.03.2012 after serving 34 years. The retirement benefits of the 1st petitioner's husband were belatedly settled only on 30.12.2013. Thereafter, there was raise in Dearness Allowance by 7% from January 2012 to March 2012. In this regard, a representation was made to the respondent on 20.02.2014 for revising terminal benefits at the revised rate of dearness allowance at 65% for payment of difference amount and interest for belated payment of terminal benefits, however no order has been passed. Therefore, the husband of the petitioner filed a Writ Petition before this Court in W.P.No.10383 of 2014 for necessary relief and this Court, by order, dated 11.12.2020 directed the respondent herein to consider the representation of the petitioner, thereafter too, no order has been passed. Now, the petitioners approached this Court again seeking direction to the respondent for revision of terminal benefits.

3.Heard Mr.N.Sundaramurthy, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.T.Chandrasekar, learned Standing Counsel for the respondent.
