The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 6(4) TNSC (RDCS) Order 1982 r/w 7(i)(a)(ii) Essential Commodities Act, 1955, in Crime No.148 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. There are totally three accused involved in this case and the petitioners are arrayed as A1 and A2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were in illegal possession of 11,110 Kgs of PDS rice, worth about Rs.3,66,630/-, without obtaining any permission or license from the Tamil Nadu State Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that 1st petitioner is the driver, 2nd petitioner is the owner of the lorry and without his knowledge, the lorry was taken by the 3rd accused and above said occurrence was happened. He would further submit that the entire contraband has also been seized/recovered from the petitioners. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioners are prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- each as a non-refundable deposit to "the District Revenue Officer, Nagapattinam District". Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioners were in illegal possession of 11,110 Kgs of PDS rice, worth about Rs.3,66,630/-, without obtaining any permission or license from the Tamil Nadu State Government. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of transporting PDS rice, the petitioners undertake to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- (Rupees Seventy Five Thousand only) each as a non-refundable deposit to "the District Revenue Officer, Nagapattinam District," without prejudice to their rights and contentions before the trial Court. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioners deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- (Rupees Seventy Five Thousand only) each, by way of
