Crl.O.P.No.6116 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 327 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.111 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution due to property dispute, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant's mother with filthy language, assaulted her with wooden log and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to property dispute, a false complaint has been given. He would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to property dispute, the petitioner abused the de facto complainant's mother with filthy language and assaulted her with wooden log due to which, she sustained injury on the head and she has been given eight stitches and subsequently, discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on either sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Kanchipuram, on condition that the petitioner
