The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.92 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that the defacto complainant's father and mother died. While so, the petitioner along with A1 and A2, has sold the properties to third parties by fabricated legal heir certificate as if the Illayarani/A1, is the sole legal heir of the defacto complainant's father and mother. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that the defacto complainant's father and mother died. While so, the petitioner along with A1 and A2, has sold the properties to third parties by creating fabricated legal heir certificate as if the Illayarani/A1, is the sole legal heir of the defacto complainant's father and mother. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on either sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XVII Metropolitan Magistrate, Saidapet, Chennai, on condition that
