3. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the 3rd respondent submitted that the 1st respondent had already issued summons and had conducted an enquiry based on the complaint made by the ward members. The learned counsel further submitted that the report has also been received from the 3rd respondent in this regard. Hence, the learned Additional Government Pleader sought for some time to enable the 1st respondent to consider the grievance and proceed further in accordance with law.

4. In the light of the above submissions, there shall be a direction to the 1st respondent to take a final decision on the enquiry conducted based on the complaint given by the ward members and it goes without saying that the same will be strictly in accordance with law after affording opportunity to all the parties concerned. This process shall be
