A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 452, 294(b), 354, 352, 307 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.802 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused went to the defacto complainant's house, abused, attempted to attack the defacto complainant with iron rod and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him on account of previous enmity. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused went to the defacto complainant's house, abused, attempted to attack with iron rod and also threatened her with dire consequences. He would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner/accused.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Mayiladuthurai, on condition that the petitioner
