Crl.O.P.No.6266 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.78 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to political enmity, the petitioners along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him in a filthy language and attempted to assault him and also damaged his Innova Car. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to political enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case and that they are no way connected with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.4390 of 2023 dated 02.03.2023 and that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to political enmity, the petitioners along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him in a filthy language and attempted to assault him and his son with knife and also damaged his Innova Car. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners and also of the fact that the co-accused in this case have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
