The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC in Crime No.9 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. It is the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in Crime No.9 of 2023 registered for the offences under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC. The Petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged in the first information report. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

3. In response, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) submitted that, the petitioner proposed to sell water bodies of Poramboke land to the defacto complainant and received advance amount. It is further stated that the matter was referred before Mediation and amicable settlement had been reached.

4. Without going into any further discussion, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in
