Crl.O.P.No.6316 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 386 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.93 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, who is a member of the Kancheepuram Sreedar Gang, along with other accused had threatened the defacto complainant and demanded rowdy mamul from him. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been foisted against him. He would submit that the fact remains that the petitioner is stated to be a member of the Kancheepuram Sreedar Gang and the petitioner has also got previous case and thereby in order to keep the petitioner under fetters, a false case has been registered. He would submit that even in the complaint, the defacto complainant stated to have threatened him and the respondent police have used the petty shop owner to foist this case. He would submit that the respondent has also registered yet another case against the petitioner in Crime No.51 of 2023. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner is a member of the Kancheepuram Sreedar Gang. He along with other accused had threatened the defacto complainant and demanded rowdy mamul from him. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
