A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 324, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.56 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that one Sundara, who is a mother of the 1st petitioner, is a destitute woman and in the year 2022 the defacto complainant married the 1st petitioner's mother on 24.02.2023. while so, the 1st petitioner in an inebriated condition had quarrelled with her mother, which was questioned by the defacto complainant. Due to which, the petitioner along with others waylaid, the defacto complainant and his wife attacked with knife and wooden log and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to the family dispute, a false complaint has been given against them. He would submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to the family dispute, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log and also threatened him with dire consequences. He would submit that the victim has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.
