A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.88 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the previous dispute with regard to pathway, the petitioners had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language, threatened him and also attacked him with brick stone, as a result of which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false complaint has been registered against them. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
