Crl.O.P.No.6379 of 2023

RMT.TEEKAA RAMAN, J.

The Petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the Respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 120(b), 420, 465, 467, 468 & 471 of IPC in Crime No.24 of 2023 on the file of the Respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the Defacto Complainant purchased two plots vide Doc. No.1432 of 1984 dated 30.04.1984. On 15.06.2022, some third parties were carrying out some construction in the subject property and then he found that the Accused, who is the power of attorney sold the same property to V.Vijayakumar and P.Mohankumar. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned Counsel for the Petitioner would submit that the Petitioner is never involved in the activities as alleged by the prosecution and the Petitioner was falsely implicated in this case. Hence, the learned counsel for the Petitioner prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the Petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the Respondent is vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner.

5.Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

Cr1.O.P.No.6379 of 2023

6.The Petitioner herein is arrayed as A1, who is claimed to be a power of attorney. One Parthasarathy is the owner of the property and under the strength of the sale deed Doc.No.1596 of 1964, he is said to have been executed the same in favour of one M.Pandian. Based upon that, general power of attorney was given to the Petitioner herein, now as per the preliminary investigation and as per the records of the registration department it appears that the subject document is said to have been executed by one Padmavathi. Considering the overtact against the Petitioner, I find that this is the case for investigation and I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner.

7.Accordingly, this Petition is dismissed.
