Crl.O.P.No.6438 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 324, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.198 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the petitioners and the defacto complainant quarrelled with each other. As a result, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case in counter on the complaint given by the petitioners. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to civil dispute, the petitioners and the defacto complainant quarrelled with each other. As a result, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked and threatened him with dire consequences. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that it is a case and case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
