Crl.O.P.No.6488 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 447, 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.85 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Ravichandran, Assistant Engineer in Zone-14, is that when the corporation was putting up a construction for hospital, the petitioners abused the workers, who are working in the construction work and assaulted them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case, since the defacto complainant suspects that the petitioners were also present along with A1 at the time of occurrence. He would further submit that A1 has been arrested and enlarged on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Alandur in Cr.M.P.No.731 of 2023 dated 15.03.2023. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that when the corporation was putting up a construction for hospital, the petitioners abused tthe workers, who are working in the construction work and assaulted them. He would submit that the victim has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
