Crl.O.P.No.6772 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 341 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.205 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the nuisance created by the dogs, there was a wordy quarrel, during the quarrel, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and a case in counter and the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to the nuisance created by the dogs, the petitioner along with his family members have abused the defacto complainant with a filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruthuraipoondi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
