The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 24(1) and 6(a) of Cigarette and other Tobacco Products Act, 2003 and under Sections 284 and 328 of IPC, in Crime No.41 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found in possession of Banned Tobacco Products worth about Rs.1,24,000/-. On seeing the respondent police, the petitioner ran away from the scene of occurrence. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that A1 has been arrested and released on bail. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition may be imposed by this Court. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was found in possession of Banned Tobacco Products worth about Rs.1,24,000/-. He would further that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner out of which one previous case is similar in nature. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that without prejudice to his contention and defence the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.50,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit an amount of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to the credit of "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Mohan Kumaramangalam Medical College and Hospital, Salem", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open for the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made on both sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.50,000/- to "The Dean/Medical Officer, Government Mohan
