Crl.O.P.No.7013 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 397, 307, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.334 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, the petitioner along with other accused persons had transferred the money from the defacto complainant's mobile to their mobiles and when he questioned the accused they had criminally intimidated him and assaulted him resulting him in sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and a false case has been registered against him due to money dispute. He would further submit that the petitioner is arrayed as A3 in this case and A1 and A2 are the main accused and they have been arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to money dispute, the petitioner along with other accused persons had transferred the money from the defacto complainant's mobile to their mobiles, criminally intimidated him and also assaulted him, resulting him in sustaining injuries. He would further submitted that the injured has been discharge from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made on both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
