2. Pursuant to the directions issued by this Court, the case instituted by the respondent was transferred. The learned counsel for the respondent made a submission that the interim maintenance granted by this Court has been punctually paid by the respondent to the petitioner. The respondent further undertakes that he will continue to pay the interim maintenance as ordered by this Court. The petitioner has paid the school fees of Rs.2,50,000 directly to the school authorities and produced the receipt issued by the school management. Thus, the respondent is ready to cooperate for the education of the children as per the directions issued by this Court and will pay the interim maintenance as ordered.

3. Regarding other issues, the respondent made a submission that he will cooperate within his limits to secure the certificates and other documents from the authorities in United Kingdom and the petitioner has to cooperate along with the respondent for the purpose of securing the certificate, if any needed for the purpose of employment or otherwise. All other issues raised between the parties are to be resolved in respect of the petition filed by them before the Family Court and they are at liberty to adjudicate the issues before the competent Court.
