4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) for the respondent police vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that on 01.10.2021, when the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Thiruvallur Police Station, along with his police party, conducted a search in the petitioner's company namely Supreme Petrol Products, 5 lorries were found loaded with 30,900 liters of crud oil without any license.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the certificate issued by the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Tiruvallur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of his Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] The petitioner shall pay a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand Only) as non refundable deposit to the Chair Person, Juvenile Justice Board, Kellys, Chennai- 600 010 and the receipt of payment for the same, shall be produced before the learned Magistrate at the time of execution of bail bond.

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, everyday at 10.30 a.m. for a period of one week and thereafter, as and when required for investigation.

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
