WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 448, 294(b), 323, 324, 354 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.98 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute, the accused have picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant, during the quarrel, the accused have abused and assaulted her and also outraged her modesty by pulling her saree. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and due to civil dispute, a false complaint has been given against them, as if, they are abused, assaulted and also outraged the modesty of the defacto complainant. He would further submit that there was a civil dispute pending between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners have filed two suits in O.S.Nos.164 and 168 of 2022 before the learned Subordinate Judge, Ranipet. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence and they are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to civil dispute, the accused have picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant, during the quarrel, the accused have abused and assaulted her and also outraged her modesty by pulling her saree. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as out-patient in the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact
