WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 324 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.134 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant/Lakshmi is that the accused, by doing black magic, had threatened her and her family members and when it was questioned by them, the accused have assaulted her husband with stones. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners, by doing black magic, had threatened the defacto complainant and her family members and when it was questioned by them, the petitioners have assaulted her husband with stones. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
