CrI.O.P.No.7312 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 352, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.129 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant and the petitioners are close relatives. There was a family dispute between them. On 22.03.2023 at about 9.30 a.m., due to family dispute, the accused persons abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language and assaulted the de facto complainant and her mother, resulting in them sustaining grievous injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on them. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, the accused persons abused the de-facto complainant with filthy language and also attacked the de-facto complainant and her mother, resulting in them sustaining grievous injuries. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the counsel on either sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
