WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.44 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the wife of the defacto complainant shouted at her grand children to switch off the light and not to disturb others by creating noise, but the petitioner has mistakenly taken that she was scolding him, due to which, the petitioner has trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him and assaulted him with both knife. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given. He would further submit that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner has mistakenly taken that the wife of the defacto complainant was scolding him, due to which, the petitioner has trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused and assaulted him with boti knife. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
