Crl.O.P.No.7344 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(i) of IPC and Section 4 of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.407 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant/Sarala is that due to family dispute, the petitioners have waylaid the defacto complainant and her parents, abused them in a filthy language and assaulted them with hands and helmet. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, the petitioners have waylaid the defacto complainant and her parents, abused them in a filthy language and assaulted them with hands and helmet. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as out-patient in the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
