2. On the complaint given by the de-facto complainant that her daughter, aged about 17 years, was found missing, a "girl missing" case in Crime No.145 of 2023 was registered by the respondent Police. During the course of investigation, it came to light that the accused had kidnapped the minor victim girl, aged about 17 years and committed penetrative sexual assault on her, thereby, the case has been altered to one under Sections 366 of IPC, 5 r/w 6 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offenses Act, 2012. Hence the case.

He also submitted that the petitioner, without understanding the consequences and rigours of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, had taken the minor victim girl with him. He also submitted that the petitioner has not committed any penetrative sexual assault on the victim girl and he further submitted that the petitioner, understands that the statement has been recorded from the victim girl under Section 164 Cr.P.C, wherein, she has not made any allegation of sexual assault against him. He further submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 02.03.2023, hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner had kidnapped the minor victim girl from the legal guardianship of the de-facto complainant and had committed penetrative sexual assault on her.
