A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 6(4) of TNSC (RDCS) Order 1982 read with 7(i) a(ii) of E.C Act, 1955 in Crime No.137 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.08.2022 at about 11.00 a.m., based on the secret information received by the respondent police, they found that the petitioner along with two other accused transported 10,000 Kgs of PDS rice in the lorry bearing Reg.No.KA-01-AB-8256, without obtaining any permission or license from the Tamil Nadu State Government. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that A1 and A3 were arrested and released on bail. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- as a non-refundable deposit to "the District Revenue Officer, Krishnagiri District". Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would that the petitioner was in possession of 10,000 Kgs of PDS rice. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of transporting PDS rice, the petitioner undertakes to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- (Rupees Seventy Five Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit to "the District Revenue Officer, Krishnagiri District" without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions of either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- (Rupees Seventy Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft/RTGS/NEFT to the "District Revenue Officer, Krishnagiri District", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Krishnagiri, on condition
