WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 446, 354, 355, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.47 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's husband had illegally intimacy with A1 and when it was questioned by the defacto complainant, A1 along with other accused have abused and assaulted her. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and due to family quarrel, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that A1 in this case has been arrested and enlarged on bail. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that due to dispute on account of an illicit intimacy, the petitioners have abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
