Crl.O.P.No.7747 of 2023

WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 326 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.109 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused have waylaid the defacto complainant and picked up a quarrel with him, during the quarrel, they have abused and assaulted him with beer bottle, resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence and they are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioners have waylaid the defacto complainant and enquired about one person namely Prakash and also picked up a quarrel with him, during the quarrel, they have abused and assaulted him with beer bottle. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
