2. Though the children of the writ petitioner were paying the maintenance allowance at the time of filing of the present writ petition in the year 2015, the present status is unable to be ascertained by learned counsel for the petitioner. Thus, this Court is not in a position to decide the issues on merits.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner reported 'No Instructions'. Accordingly, the writ petition stands closed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to restore the writ petition if any grievance exists. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are also closed.
