The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(ii) IPC in Crime No. 101 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, there was a family dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioner's family, while so, on 15.03.2023, at about 4.30 p.m, the petitioner's family went to the defacto complainant's house and they abused him in filthy language and also attacked him with iron rod causing injuries to the defacto complainant and his parents. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to family dispute, they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would also submit that it is a case and case in counter and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that this is the case and case in counter. Due to family dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioner's family, the petitioner's family went into the defacto complainant's house and attacked him with iron rod and also abused him in filthy language. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Alandur, Chennai on condition
