2. The facts as per the affidavit filed in support of this petition is as follows:

2.1. The petitioner was appointed as Junior Assistant in the police department on 15.07.1985 through TNPSC. Subsequently he was promoted as Assistant and also thereafter as Superintendent.

2.2. After completion of six years of service as Superintendent the petitioner was entitled to be promoted as Personal Assistant. On 22.08.2012 the second respondent published inter seniority list consisting of promotion from the cadre of Junior Assistant to Assistant and also to Superintendent including the seniority of the temporary Superintendent. The petitioner was placed in Sl.No.239 against the rule and his juniors were placed above him.

2.3. In spite of several requests made by the petitioner, the second respondent failed to revise the seniority list. The first respondent issued G.O.(Ms).No.118 dated 17.02.2014, wherein 103 superintendents were promoted as Personal Assistants (Administration).

2.4. Subsequently, the petitioner has raised objection by way of representation dated 22.11.2014 and therefore sought for direction to dispose
