respondent police along with her police party involved in routine vehicle check up, they intercepted a vehicle viz., Hero Honda Splender bearing Registration No.TN 21 J 2446 which was driven by one Baskaran @ Poonai Baskar and found 60 nos. of liquor packets each containing 300m.l. and on enquiry, it was found that the petitioner along with her sons, daughter and others, had asked the said Baskaran @ Poonai Baskar to take the same in order to sell it near Cemetery at Venkudi. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and she has been falsely implicated in this case since the petitioner has got some previous cases against her. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner is a habitual offender against whom there are 40 previous cases registered in Walajabad and Kancheepuram police stations. He further submitted that the petitioner was earlier detained under Act 14 for 4 times.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the bad antecedents of the petitioner who has got 40 previous cases against her, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, these Criminal Original Petitions are dismissed.
