A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) and 20(b)(ii)(B) of NDPS Act 1985, in Crime No.272 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with her husband were found in possession of 2.500 kgs of Ganja and on seeing the respondent police, the petitioner ran away from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that she has been falsely implicated in this case only because she happens to be the wife of A1. He would further submit that A1 has been arrested and subsequently, released on statutory bail by the learned Principal Special Court under

EC & NDPS Act, Chennai-104, in Crl.M.P.No.6587 of 2022 dated 04.01.2023. He would also submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish sufficient solvent sureties and to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with her husband were found in illegal possession of 2.500 kgs of Ganja. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.20,000/- to any welfare scheme run by the Government.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on records.

7. Taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) to the credit of the Dean, Government Medical College and Hospital, Chengalpet, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

9. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the counsel on either sides and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.20,000/- to the Dean, Government Medical College and Hospital, Chengalpet, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
