Crl.O.P.No.8020 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.,

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353, 379, 430 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.59 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.03.2023, the accused illegally transported 1/4 unit of river sand in a Bullock Cart without any valid permit or license from the Government. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and a false case has been foisted against them. He further submitted that the petitioners two and three are the wife and mother of the first petitioner and that there is no previous case pending against them. However, without prejudice to their rights and contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- towards any Welfare Scheme run by the Government as may be directed by this Court. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the first petitioner has got one previous case against him and that there is no previous case against the second and third petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to deposit a considerable amount to any Welfare Scheme run by the Government, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) jointly to the credit of the concerned District Mineral Foundation Trust, without prejudice to their rights and the contentions before the trial Court.

6. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
