Crl.O.P.No.8008 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Section 6(4) of Tamilnadu Scheduled Commodities (RDCS) order 1982 read with Section 7(1)(a)(ii) of Essential Commodities Act, 1955 in Crime No.33 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.03.2023, the petitioner along with other accused was found to be in possession of 1000 Kgs of PDS rice. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in the case. However, on instructions he would submit that without prejudice to his rights and defence, the petitioner is ready to deposit a substantial amount to any charitable organisation as may be directed by this Court and he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused was found to be in possession of 1000 Kgs of PDS rice and that the petitioner has got one previous case of similar nature in Crime No.52 of 2016. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of transporting PDS rice, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.40,000/- (Rupees Forty Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit to “The District Revenue Officer, Villupuram District” without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court. However, it is made clear that merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
