Crl.O.P.No.8090 of 2023

WEB CO A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 323, 355 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.13 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused had unnecessarily picked up a quarrel with the wife of the defacto complainant with regard to the demolition of the old school building and further, the accused without listening the words of the defacto complainant's family members, had abused them in a filthy language, assaulted them and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against her. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the accused had unnecessarily picked up a quarrel with the wife of the defacto complainant with regard to the demolition of the old school building, during the quarrel, the accused without listening the words of the defacto complainant's family members, had abused them in a filthy language, assaulted them and also threatened them with dire consequences. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
