Crl.O.P.No.8188 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.121 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Kamaraj who is working as a police in Velacherry Police Station is that on 31.03.2023 at about 8.30 a.m. when the defacto complainant along with his father-in-law and his daughter aged about 3 years was proceeding towards his house after purchasing provisional items, a two wheeler bearing Regn.No.TN 07 CR 6076 overtook as if, hitting against the defacto complainant's vehicle. When the defacto complainant questioned the same, the petitioner by abusing the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with hands and when the defacto complainant's father-in-law who was carrying the defacto complainant's child, tried to prevent the petitioner, he pushed them down. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
