Crl.O.P.No.8432 of 2023

S.SOUNTHAR, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC, in Crime No.97 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to dispute in sharing the pathway, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also attacked the brother of the defacto complainant with Koduval and caused injuries on his head. Further, the petitioner threatened the defacto complainant and his family with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant's brother with Koduval and threatened the defacto complainant and his family with dire consequences. He further submitted that injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Having regard to the facts of the case and the nature of the allegation made against the petitioner and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
